Dear praying friends,

My sincere thanks for praying for me as I have continued proofreading the new edition of the Bible Translation training textbook and the Teacher's Manual that goes with it. I have indeed been seeing answers to prayer. Please keep praying for wisdom, insight, and alertness in these final stages of proofreading - I think the end is coming into view.

I have been blessed in interacting by email with translators who I worked with in past years. I needed to contact them about the use of some photos taken long ago, photos that illustrate the steps in the process of Bible translation. The photos are being used in PowerPoints that form part of this set of training materials and the publishers require a signed form from everyone who appears in each photo, giving permission for its use. It is encouraging to hear how translators are still pressing forward in the work the Lord has called them to, often in very challenging circumstances.

Please keep praying too for the Mbembe Old Testament translation team as they translate selected Psalms. Pray that these songs will truly bless their own hearts and spirits as they translate and as they share the translations with others.

Thank you for praying! Love and blessings,

Katy
